Workshop with Shobha in Palermo 3 to 6 October 2013 with the extraordinary presence of Letizia Battaglia.

Tell me a story ... a person, a place, an atmosphere, a complaint, a love, your family, yourself, a dream, a vision, your friends, your children ... you're experiencing something intensely and you would like to report and share.

Tell something that touches us and affects us personally is an act of courage, love and freedom.

THE WORKSHOP - Duration: 4 days.

The purpose of the workshop is to create a personal narrative describing our reality. We will address also the issue of ethics photographic and how to approach each other, the portrait and its composition. It's possible, add a little text and a video project.

Each participant will be encouraged to highlight their own personal research, Shobha will help you to connect your eyes to your heart. The project will be carried out in an independent and individual, therefore especially with regard to photographic output, you will need to make their own movements, (Palermo can be traveled on foot but will provide information on the means of transport if they are required). In the workshop phase will work on the choice of images, on the construction of the sequence of the story and post-production. Our base of operations will be the Academy's David, in a charming nineteenth century building in the historic center of the city, opposite the Botanical Gardens and a short walk from the Foro Italico from which you can enjoy the beautiful view of the Gulf of Palermo. During the workshop is scheduled to meet with the photographer Letizia Battaglia.
